Singapore National Paralympic Council Launches 2nd Edition of Paralympic Fiesta at Waterway Point
"Right on Track with You" celebrates inclusion, sporting spirit, and international friendship.

Singapore – The Singapore National Paralympic Council (SNPC) officially launched the 2nd edition of the Paralympic Fiesta at Waterway Point today, under the theme “Right on Track with You”. Held from August 25 to 31, 2025, the event aims to raise awareness of para sports, celebrate inclusivity, and rally community support for Singapore’s para-athletes ahead of the upcoming 13th ASEAN Para Games in Nakhon Ratchasima.

The event was graced by the Guest of Honour, Ms Low Yen Ling, Senior Minister of State, Ministry of Culture, Community and Youth and Ministry of Trade & Industry, and the Special Guest, Mr Gan Kim Yong, Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade & Industry, Member of Parliament for Punggol GRC. Ms Low reiterated the government’s continued support for inclusivity and empowerment of persons with disabilities (PwDs) through sports and community engagement.

SNPC President, Dr Teo-Koh Sock Miang, highlighted the power of partnerships:

“This Fiesta is more than a celebration—it’s a movement to inspire, to challenge perceptions, and to bring people from all walks of life together in support of sporting excellence and inclusivity. With our valued partners, we are building a more connected and supportive Singapore for all.”

The Paralympic Fiesta 2025 features a dynamic line-up of activities, including:

- Para Sports Try-outs such as archery, blind bowling, and laser shooting
- Paralympic Interactive Exhibition showcasing the stories of Singapore’s para-athletes
- Carnival Games and Walkathon at Punggol Waterway Park
- Guide Dog Meet-and-Greet, Pony Feeding, and community-focused experiences for families

Toyota Motor Asia, as the Main Sponsor, reaffirmed its commitment towards mobility for all. Mr Preston Tan, Vice President, Toyota Asia, remarked:

“Toyota is proud to be part of this inspiring movement once again. Through the Paralympic Fiesta, we champion the belief that everyone deserves the freedom to move and the opportunity to pursue their dreams—regardless of ability.”

Waterway Point, a mall under Frasers Property, demonstrated its commitment to cultivating inclusive spaces as the event’s venue sponsor. Ms Molly Lim, Senior Director, Retail, Frasers Property Singapore, said:

"Fraser's Property is committed to fostering a culture of empathy, acceptance and empowerment, guided by our Purpose – Inspiring experiences, creating places for good. Hosting the Paralympic Fiesta at Waterway Point allows us to bring this meaningful initiative to the heartlands where the spirit of community and inclusivity take centre stage. Through partnerships like this, we engage our local communities to cheer on Singapore's para-athletes as they gear up for the ASEAN Para Games."

In a special show of friendship, Her Excellency Mrs. Ureerat Chareontoh, Ambassador of Thailand to Singapore, also joined the festivities:

"We are honoured by the Thai-themed celebration and warmly welcome Singapore's para-athletes to Nakhon Ratchasima. May the ASEAN Para Games 2025 strengthen our regional bonds and shared vision of inclusivity."

The SNPC extends its most profound appreciation to all sponsors and partners, including Toyota, Waterway Point, DBS Bank, Mastercard, Canon, PlayStation, Phoenix Contact, Sunday Shades, Thailand Tourism Authority, SHEIN, and many others, for making the 2nd edition of the Paralympic Fiesta a success.
